

Q3. In a floating-point number format, which of the following is the correct operation for adjusting the radix point and the exponent so that the most significant digit of the mantissa can be a non-zero value? Here, an absolute value is used for the mantissa.

- a) Carry b) Normalize c) Round down d) Round up